

How do you know the views of the child?

Children's views are actively sought on a regular basis throughout their time at Meriden. This includes opportunities for children to be part of the School Council. Key Stage 2 children also have the opportunity to present their views via questionnaires.

Children with SEND also have the opportunity to share their thoughts about what they enjoy and what they find difficult as part of reviews and information gathered to produce One Page Profiles.